● Background on the establishment of the Aurora klay project

I, "Kyungho Park", who planned the Aurora klay (ARA) project, lived in the dial era, the beep era, clairvoyant, the IMF, and the smartphone, blockchain, and COVID-19 era, and I came to plan my business with the conviction that the future will be a digital age combined with blockchain technology.

● Business Purpose

1. Building a blockchain-based network: Aiming to enable NFT holders to enjoy real-life benefits (discounts), as well as tokenomics activation and governance, metaverse, APP development, and IP business deal, in which ecosystem participants are rewarded fairly.

1. NFT authentication and payment system: Through the commercialization of a system that can be used in common on the Erc-20 and klaytn chains, it is used in all regions at home and abroad, and we want to continue innovation by securing reliability and safety.

1. Dapp: ARA tokens can be collected per block through NFT and ARA token staking.

Overview of Aurora klay ARA token based on Klaytn chain

Currently, our platform and ARA token are built on Klaytn, a global public blockchain project. Klaytn is a project operated by GroundX Corporation, a Kakao affiliate, and is an efficient hybrid open source that has both decentralized data and control, decentralized governance, which are the advantages of a public blockchain, and low latency and high scalability, which are the advantages of a private blockchain. It's a platform.

Klaytn blockchain will be fast, cheap, and continuously evolving.

Currently, Aurora Co., Ltd. issues ARA tokens and aurory NFTs on the klaytn chain, and is used for ARA tokens and NFT staking (deposit) services. It will be used and its utility will be expanded.
